Such certificate, however, shall not confer on the owner or holder thereof any rights or privileges of membership, unless first such owner or holder shall have been elected a member in the manner provided in the Constitution and By-Laws for the election of regular members of the Club.

Every income bond of the par value of $100, however, in excess of one income bond owned by a member, shall entitle him to extend the privileges of the Club to one duly elected individual of his immediate family, actually residing with him, without extra payment. A member of the immediate family thus admitted without payment shall include only the father, the son, mother, daughter, brother and sister of the member.

Holders of income bonds, who have surrendered the same to the Club, retain the same privileges as they were previously entitled to as holders of said bonds, so far as introducing members of their families is concerned.

Members may introduce guests at any time VISITING AT THEIR HOUSES to the use of the Club House without charge. Guests must pay $2 per day or for any fraction of a day for the privilege of playing golf.

In case of death of a member whose dues are paid for the current year, the privileges of the Club House and links shall be extended to the family of the late member, for the balance of that year.

Any member of such subscriber's immediate family or household actually residing with him, who shall have been previously elected by the Board, may enjoy the use of the Club House and grounds for the season on payment of $25 for each such person, or $75 for such subscriber's entire household actually residing with him.

Such subscriber may introduce guests visiting at his house to the use of the Club House without charge for any period not over one week, but each such guest shall not be introduced more than once in any one season unless they become subscribers.

Subscribers' guests must pay $2 per day or any fraction of a day for the privilege of playing golf.

to enjoy the privileges of the Club, must become subscribers. Monthly subscribers of class A will not be permitted to enjoy any further the privileges of the Club House or grounds unless they become season subscribers.

Fortnightly subscribers of class A shall pay $20, which shall entitle the subscriber and the wife or husband of such subscriber to the use of the Club House and grounds. Any member of such subscriber's household may enjoy the privileges of the Club House and grounds for two weeks, on payment of $10 for each such person.

A subscriber of class B for the season (May 15th to November 1st) shall pay $50, which shall entitle the subscriber and the wife or husband of such subscriber to the use of the Club House only.

Any member of such subscriber's immediate family or household actually residing with him, who shall have been previously elected by the Board, may enjoy the use of the Club House only for the season on payment of $20 for each such person, or $50, which shall entitle such subscriber's immediate family to the use of the Club House only.

Members and Subscribers may introduce guests, not of their household, to the privileges of the Club House without charge for a period not exceeding three days, but such guests, if using the links, must pay $2 a day. No such guests can be proposed more than once during the season, unless to become subscribers for a period of not less than one week.

All subscriptions shall be payable in advance, and no subscriber shall be entitled to the privileges of the Club until such subscription shall have been paid.

Extension of Club Privileges

The Executive Committee shall name a Nominating Committee, of three members, at least one month before the annual meeting. House Charges

Members, subscribers and guests are required to sign checks for all supplies obtained in the house. Checks signed by a guest must show the name of the member introducing him, and the amount thereof, unless paid by the guest, will be charged to such member.

All indebtedness of members or subscribers to the Club, except for Annual Dues, shall be due at the end of each month. Upon the first of every month there shall be sent to each member and subscriber a notice of the amount of his indebtedness to the Club.

The name of each member and subscriber who shall fail to pay such indebtedness the first day of the following month, shall then be posted in the Club House on a list provided for that purpose. If the amount is not paid by the first of the following month, his credit shall cease until his indebtedness is discharged, or the Board of Governors may, at its discretion, order that his name be stricken from the roll of the Club.

book at the office immediately upon entering the Club, and no guest shall be considered as properly introduced unless this rule is complied with, and cannot be permitted to play until he shall have obtained a ticket at the office and delivered it to the Caddie Master. Members and subscribers sending guests to the Club must provide them with cards of introduction.

No resident of Southampton and adjoining towns will be allowed to enjoy any of the privileges of the Club House or links unless they become subscribers.

Golf Committee Rules

A ball driven from the 3rd, 4th or 6th Tees striking a pole (or its supports) on the fly, may be re-driven without penalty.

A ball played on any green, other than the one being played to, must be lifted and dropped, no nearer the hole, without penalty.

A ball touching or within a club's length of the snow fences piled up near the railway tracks may be lifted and dropped, no nearer the hole, without penalty.

A ball lying within a club's length of the rails, or within a club's length of extra sleepers or other large pieces of wood, temporarily near the railway track, may be lifted and dropped, no nearer the hole, without penalty.

A ball lying against the piazza or going underneath the piazza on either the 1st or 18th holes, may be dropped a club's length away from the piazza, no nearer the hole, without penalty.

All play will be governed by the rules of the U. S. Golf Association, subject to local ground rules.

Handicap limit for young and medium aged players will be 25 strokes, for older players 35 strokes.

Handicaps will be posted in the Club House.

To obtain a handicap all new players must hand in three attested scores.

No player can start later than 3 p. m. in any handicap or competition without the consent of the Golf Committee.

Players may only play with another competitor in the same competition, except by special permission from the Golf Committee.

No match or competition of any kind, other than the regular club competitions, will be allowed on Mondays, Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays, holidays or match days, except by special permission from the Golf Committee.

Players cutting in at any tee lose all rights and must allow all properly constituted matches playing the full round to pass at any place on the course.

Lockers

Lockers will be reserved for members until May 1st of each season, and if not paid for by that date will be at the disposal of the Club. Season subscribers will be assigned vacant lockers after May 1st in the order of their applications.

Exclusion of Dogs

No dogs shall be brought to the Club House or grounds.

Protection of Teeing Grounds, Bunkers and Course

In order that turf on the teeing grounds may be preserved as far as possible, it is earnestly requested that players at all times observe the location of the ground disks, indicating a line behind which the ball shall be teed. The position of these disks will be changed from time to time, as directed by the Committee.

Players or their caddies must replace at once all divots and press down firmly with the foot.

Local rules will be posted in the club House.

The attention of players is called to the following regulations in regard to the engagement of caddies, a strict observance of which is essential for discipline and for the enjoyment of equal privileges by all members, subscribers and visitors.

Rules Relating to Caddies

All caddies must be employed by the Club and are to be under the supervision of the Caddie Master at all times.

Caddies must be engaged only at the caddie office, and only when the player is ready to commence playing. No engagement in advance can be permitted.

Players must not buy balls from caddies, nor offer rewards for finding balls.

All balls found by caddies in going around the course must be given to the player the caddie is with.

Players are especially requested to see that this rule is enforced and to report any caddie keeping a found ball.

Caddies offering balls for sale may be discharged.

Caddies must be taken in their regular numerical order from the book of the Caddie Master. No selection of special caddies can be permitted excepting where players have arranged with the Club Superintendent for private caddies.

All caddies are paid by the Club and no extra compensation must for any reason be given.

Private caddies may be secured upon application to the Club Superintendent.

Private caddies will be reserved for the members employing them until 10:30 A. M. for the morning round and until 3:30 P. M. for the afternoon round, unless the Club be notified by such member that the services of his private caddie will be needed after these hours.

All private caddies will be required to act as regular caddies after 10:30 A. M. and 3:30 P. M. if not carrying or reserved for the members regularly employing them.

When private caddies are being used as regular caddies their services will be charged for at the same rate as regular caddies.

The charges for private caddies will be at the rate of $40 a month.

Caddies will be divided into classes A and B:

Class A for each round of 18 holes or fraction thereof, 60c.

Class B for each round of 18 holes or fraction thereof, 50c.

Players must sign a caddie ticket on engaging a caddie.

It is hoped that players will, in the public interest, co-operate with the Committees in a rigid adherence to the above rules, even at the sacrifice of personal convenience.

All complaints relating to the house, course, play or caddies, shall be made in writing to the proper Committee. The Golf Committee will decide all disputes arising between players not covered by the within conditions and rules.
